

A question that many philosophy professors ask their students is: Where does time go? Here I am today asking myself the same question.

Last year on the 20th of January 2016, we, the Women of Holy Cross, inaugurated our 175 years of foundation with a solemn Proclamation. Today we are now reminiscing ALL that took place either in our local community, parish, sector, region... to highlight these 175 years. Years of God's presence that enabled us to live with audacity and courage the mission entrusted to us as Women of Holy Cross.

We have so much to be thankful for! The Past. The Present. The Future.

As we bring this 175th Anniversary Year to a close, each local community, sector or region may want to underline it by making use of the that extends from the 20 to 29 of January which can be found under Prayer on the web page womenofholycross.org.
